2. We are of the view that both the parties should clear the fees of the Arbitrator which are due to him as of now for all the work done including the work which has gone into award that has been set aside. They may as well get the rate of fees decided for the future work and then they should decide about their future course of action. Nothing further is required to be stated beyond what is stated herein. Praecipe disposed of.

3. Certified copy expedited.
